

As of May 20, 2024, any NSF recipient of higher education that receives a new award or a funding amendment on an existing award is required to submit a Foreign Financial Disclosure Report (FFDR). The FFDR must be submitted to NSF regardless of whether your organization receives financial support from a foreign country of concern. For more details, see Foreign Financial Disclosure Report \(PAPPG\).

The submission window to report foreign support from countries of concern (see PAPPG Chapter VII.D.3 for additional information) received between July 1, 2024, and June 30, 2025, opens on September 1, 2025, and closes on October 31, 2025; FFDR extension and amendment requests can be submitted in Research.gov starting on November 1, 2025. See extension and amendment guidance starting on page 12 of this guide.

Foreign Financial Disclosure Report (FFDR) Preparer Role

- FFDR must be prepared and submitted in Research.gov by an individual with an FFDR Preparer role.
- The FFDR Preparer role was assigned to all individuals with the Authorized Organizational Representative (AOR) role. Organizational Administrators can add or remove the FFDR Preparer role for individuals within their organization as appropriate.

Preparing a Foreign Financial Disclosure Report in Research.gov

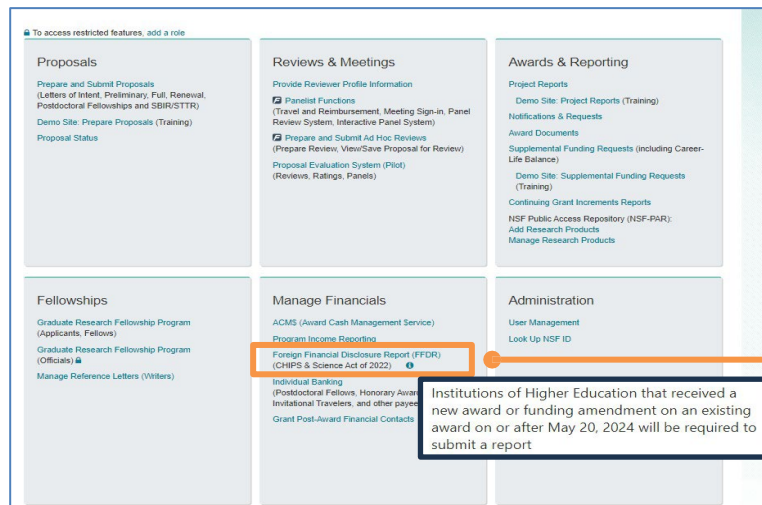

FFDR Preparer accesses the Foreign Financial Disclosure Report portal in Research.gov.

1 Two ways to access:

- The FFDR Preparer can use the Foreign Financial Disclosure Report (FFDR) page link included in the FFDR system-generated emails from NSF and sign into Research.gov. See appendix for example emails.
- The FFDR Preparer can sign into Research.gov and then click the Foreign Financial Disclosure Report (FFDR) link under "Manage Financials" on the Research.gov homepage.

- Users without the FFDR Preparer role will see the link; however, it will have a lock icon and can only be accessed by users with the FFDR Preparer role.

View of Research.gov Homepage (after sign-in)

The screenshot shows the Research.gov homepage with several navigation panels. The 'Manage Financials' panel is highlighted with a red box. Within this panel, the 'Foreign Financial Disclosure Report (FFDR)' link is highlighted with a red box and has a lock icon next to it. A callout box points to this link with the text: "Institutions of Higher Education that received a new award or funding amendment on an existing award on or after May 20, 2024 will be required to submit a report".

Foreign Financial Disclosure Report link

2 FFDR Preparer clicks the Create Report button on the FFDR initial report(s) page to initiate a report.

Foreign Financial Disclosure Report (FFDR)
CHIPS & Science Act of 2022

The submission window to report foreign support from countries of concern (see PAPPG Chapter VII.D.3) received between July 1, 2024 and June 30, 2025 is open. The Foreign Financial Disclosure Report (FFDR) is due October 31, 2025 at 5:00 p.m. (based on the submitting organization's local time).

Any NSF recipient of higher education that receives a new award or a funding amendment on an existing award on or after May 20, 2024 is required to submit a Foreign Financial Disclosure Report (FFDR). The FFDR must be submitted to NSF regardless of whether your organization receives financial support from a foreign country of concern. FFDR Extensions and Amendments

Preparing an FFDR Extension

The FFDR submission window will close at 5:00 PM submitting IHE's local time on October 31, 2025. Once the submission window closes, IHEs will not be able to create, modify, or submit their reports; any in-progress reports will become read-only; and required reports that are unsubmitted will be considered overdue. Additionally, the Create Report button will be disabled.

If an IHE does not submit their required FFDR before the deadline, the FFDR preparer must request an extension to submit the FFDR. The Request Extension button will be enabled starting November 1, 2025. For additional information, please see the FFDR extension FAQs on the Research.gov About Foreign Financial Disclosure Report page left navigation bar.

Follow the steps below to prepare and submit an FFDR extension:

- 1 An FFDR Preparer clicks the Request Extension button on the FFDR initial report(s) page to request an extension.

The screenshot shows the 'Foreign Financial Disclosure Report (FFDR)' page. At the top, there is a notification: 'One or more of your organizations has an overdue report. To work on and submit your overdue report(s), select 'Request Extension' below.' Below this, there is a table of reports. The table has columns for Year, Organization, Submitted By, Submitted On, Status [Key], and Actions. A row is shown for the year 2025, with the organization 'National Science Foundation' and a status of 'Overdue'. The 'Actions' column for this row contains a 'View Report' link. Above the table, there are two buttons: 'Request Extension' and 'Create Report'. The 'Request Extension' button is highlighted with an orange box, and a callout label 'Request Extension button' points to it.

- All FFDR Preparers associated with the requesting IHE will receive an email notification confirming their extension request was submitted and approved.
- A green success message will display at the top of the IHE's FFDR main page communicating that the extension request was approved.
- The extension due date will display.
