Overview of PI Transfer Request Preparation and Submission Process in Research.gov

Successful submission of a PI Transfer request to NSF involves both the PI's new and original organizations.

Steps for PI's Original Organization

- Step 1 Original organization contacts the new organization AOR/SPO/PI offline to obtain or confirm key new organization information prior to initiating the PI Transfer in Research.gov. This is a critical and necessary step to ensure that the PI Transfer is routed to the correct new organization in Research.gov.

Key new organization information required for a PI Transfer:

1. Unique Entity Identifier (UEI)
2. New Awardee Organization Name associated with UEI
3. System for Award Management (SAM) Legal Business Name associated with UEI
4. Address associated with UEI

An organization may have multiple UEIs listed with the same or similar names. It's critical that the correct UEI be selected in Research.gov so that the PI Transfer request is routed to the intended new organization. PI Transfer requests routed to an incorrect new organization (i.e., an incorrect UEI is selected) will result in delayed submission to NSF and request processing.

Questions?

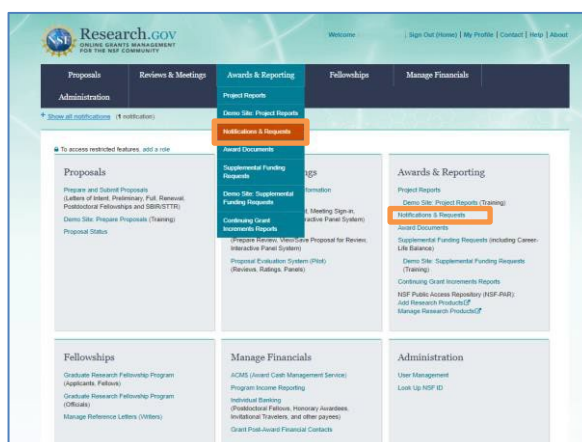

IT system-related questions and technical questions may be directed to the NSF IT Service Desk at 1-800-381-1532 (7:00 AM – 9:00 PM Eastern Time; Monday – Friday except federal holidays) or via rgov@nsf.gov. Policy-related questions should be directed to policy@nsf.gov.

1. Why should the original organization contact the new organization offline to confirm the new organization's UEI prior to initiating the PI Transfer request in Research.gov?

An organization may have multiple UEIs listed with the same or similar names. It's critical that the correct UEI be selected in Research.gov so that the PI Transfer request is routed to the intended new organization. PI Transfer requests routed to an incorrect new organization (i.e., an incorrect UEI is selected) will result in delayed submission to NSF and request processing.

2. Who can initiate a PI Transfer request at the PI's original organization?

The original organization PI, SPO, or AOR can initiate a PI Transfer request in Research.gov. If the PI or SPO initiates the PI Transfer request, it must be forwarded to the original organization AOR. Only the original organization AOR can forward the PI Transfer request to the PI's new organization in Research.gov.

3. Who is the recipient of the PI Transfer request at the new organization?

The PI Transfer request is sent to the AOR(s) of the new organization. The new organization AOR(s) will receive a system-generated email notification when the PI Transfer request is forwarded from the PI's original organization in Research.gov.

4. Who submits the PI Transfer request to NSF?

The new organization AOR submits the PI Transfer request to NSF in Research.gov. Once submitted to NSF, the PI Transfer request cannot be withdrawn or edited by either the new or original organization.

5. Who can return the PI Transfer request to the original organization and what happens to the request?

The new organization AOR can return the PI Transfer request to the original organization AOR. If the PI Transfer request is returned to the original organization, the request may be edited, deleted, or completely restarted by the original organization. If the request is completely restarted, the original organization must delete the existing PI Transfer request as Research.gov does not permit multiple in-progress PI Transfer requests for a specified award. The original organization AOR can delete the request by selecting the Delete option in the Actions column of the Items Needing Attention table on the Notifications & Requests page. Once the new organization returns the PI Transfer request to the original organization, the new organization can only view the request in Research.gov.

6. What actions are available to each organization after the PI Transfer request is forwarded to the new organization?

The original organization can only view the request in Research.gov. The new organization AOR can either submit the request to NSF, return it to the original organization, or delete it.

7. What actions are available to each organization if the PI Transfer request is returned to the original organization?

The new organization can only view the request in Research.gov. The original organization AOR can return the request to the initiator (i.e., original organization PI or SPO), edit the request and forward the request again to the new organization, or delete it.

8. Are there differences in what I should enter in the Budget section for standard grants versus continuing grants?

When the PI Transfer request is forwarded from the original organization to the new organization, all funds in the current year budget are entered under Other Direct Costs. The new organization must reallocate budget funds to the appropriate line items in the current year budget for both standard and continuing grants before submitting the request to NSF. Additional budget years will display for continuing grants, and the new organization has the option to revise the allocations inherited from the original organization for the other years. Please see the Proposal & Award Policies & Procedures Guide (PAPPG) Definitions section for how NSF defines standard grants and continuing grants.

9. What happens to a subaward(s) if an award is transferred to a new organization through a PI Transfer?

If NSF approves the proposed PI Transfer from the original organization to the new organization and the process has been completed, the new organization can then initiate a Subawarding, Transferring or Contracting Out Part of an NSF Award request in Research.gov to add the subaward(s). Refer to Proposal & Award Policies & Procedures Guide (PAPPG) Chapter VII.B. for more information and contact the NSF Grants and Agreements Official if you have questions.
